To INDIANAPOLIS and RETURN

The Merchants' Association of Indianapolis

Will refund the Round-Trip Fare to persons living within a radius of forty miles from Indianapolis, upon the purchase of $25.00 worth of merchandise from one member of the Association or from all combined.

One per cent. Rebate will be allowed on all purchases in excess of $25.00.

ASK FOR A Merchants' Association Rebate Book

In the first store you enter of those named in the margin as members. Insist upon each purchase being entered in the Rebate Book in Every Store you trade in, and, when through buying, the last store will direct you how to receive your rebate. It's all very simple—no extra trouble. Application for rebate must be made at the time purchase is made.

Every Line of Merchandise is Represented

The Merchants' Association of Indianapolis includes all of the representative retail stores of the city, and covers practically every line of merchandise needed for personal or home use. You may spend three dollars at one store, ten at another, eight at another and four in miscellaneous purchases—there are twenty-five dollars expended, for which your round-trip fare will be refunded. Persons living at a greater distance than forty miles may have their fares rebated.

To illustrate: If you live 60 miles away you pay for only 20 miles and the Association pays for 40 miles both ways. For further information address

Married on the Stage.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.
LEBANON, Ind., Oct. 6.—At the close of the performance of the Royal Players at the Grand Opera House last night Miss Josephine Van Valkenburg and Mr. Chas. J. Haynes, two leading members of the organization, were married. The ceremony was performed on the stage by Mayor John H. Busby, with the audience as spectators.

Notes of the Stage.

"The Tide of Life" relies for success principally on the electrocution of the villain, who is caught by a live wire when he leaps from a window, and the heroic jump of a young woman from a freight train to the top of an embankment. This requires that two members of the company have acrocome irritable beyond conception. He is quarrelsome and fault-finding, and is very touchy and everybody. But his mind is not affected. It is just as clear and sharp as it used to be, and he is almost entirely unaffected by his condition. He is almost entirely unaffected by his condition. He is almost entirely unaffected by his condition.

The disappointment on account of Miss Blanche Bates not being in the cast of "Under Two Flags," at English's Opera House will not be widespread for the reason that she has not acted here. It was hoped that her physician might release her from the hospital in Detroit to which she was taken early last week with malarial fever, but she has not sufficiently recovered to continue her work as Cigarette, the vivandiere. However, the show relies as much on its spectacular features as it does on the acting of its company. The story is of the French army in Egypt, and is a story of soldiers and brightly-costumed Bedouins. The play is in three acts, the first in which Helen Ware will play Cigarette, the happy camp follower, who loses her life for Bertie Cescaire, the hero. The story is of the French army in Egypt, and is a story of soldiers and brightly-costumed Bedouins. The play is in three acts, the first in which Helen Ware will play Cigarette, the happy camp follower, who loses her life for Bertie Cescaire, the hero.

For the first time to-night the beautiful Garrick Theater, in Philadelphia, will be entered by the public, and on that stage the first performance of "Beaucaire," a dramatization by Booth, Tarkington, and Evelyn Greenleaf Sutherland of Mr. Tarkington's novel, "Monsieur Beaucaire," will be given. All the seats were sold long ago, and at advanced prices for this performance. Richard Mansfield plays the part of the young French prince in England. There are twenty-two other characters in the cast. The play is in three acts, the first in which Helen Ware will play Cigarette, the happy camp follower, who loses her life for Bertie Cescaire, the hero.

"King Dodo" has left the Studebaker Theater, in Chicago, to make a tour. It will come to English's Opera House soon. It was the musical summer show at Chicago, and it ran 154 nights. It was written by "Tixley and Laders," the author of "The Burgomaster." The latter piece was so successful in Chicago summer before last that it was put on the road, and it justified the praise of its Chicago patrons. The authors and promoters hope to duplicate "The Burgomaster" success with "King Dodo."

The new Kentucky Theater, at Paducah, Ky., in the lease of which Ollie Mack is a manager, was opened the other night with "The Burgomaster," played by the Western company, of which Herbert Cawthorn is the star. Herbert is brother of Joseph Cawthorn, the German comedian of the late Alice Neilson Opera Company, and now a successful vaudeville performer in New York. Mack and Charles Murray and their company are now playing "Shooting the Chutes" in Texas and will be at the Park Theater here in November.

The Topsy Turvy Burlesquers, who will begin a week's engagement at the Empire Theater this afternoon precede their vaudeville feature with an extravaganza. The ship Topsy Turvy, on a voyage from New York to Australia, is wrecked near the Philippine Islands and a theatrical company is stranded on one of them. The members of the company dress themselves as well as they can from the contents of one trunk. They surprise the natives, take possession of the island and capture Happy Hooligan and Dennis Doolley, two wild men from Chicago. Even this much of a plot is an innovation in the "variety." Tomorrow night returns from the election will be read from the stage.

INTEREST IN CONVENTION.

Members of Christian Churches Will Go to Minneapolis.

Members of the Christian churches here are taking considerable interest in the national convention of the three great missionary societies of the church, which convene Thursday of this week in the great convention hall at Minneapolis. A special train for Indiana delegates will leave here Wednesday via the Pennsylvania and Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul lines. It is thought that about fifty will accompany the train from this city and several hundred from the State at large. The societies meeting in joint convention are the Foreign Mission Society of America, the Christian Church in America, and the Christian Women's Board of Missions. The usual attendance upon such annual gatherings is from eight to ten thousand.

NIGHT HIGH SCHOOL.

It Will Open at the Shorthridge School Building To-night.

The free night High School will begin this evening at 7:30 at the Shorthridge High School. The course is entirely free and is open to all pupils capable of taking the High School work. Classes will be formed in shorthand, arithmetic, algebra, geometry, English, history, Latin, civil government and political economy. The school has been in operation two years and has been highly successful, and larger classes are expected this year.

Alcohol on Fire.

A fire which called the department yesterday afternoon to the J. M. & L. yards in the southern part of the city fortunately resulted in only a small blaze and loss of about $5. A car loaded with alcohol for the Eli Lilly Company was standing on the department arrived before the fire had become very serious. The car was overturned and the alcohol spilled out. The fire was quickly extinguished and no one was injured.

Will Have Headquarters Here.

Robert P. Woods, for the last six years city civil engineer of Wabash, will tender his resignation at the next meeting of the Common Council, having been appointed chief engineer of the syndicate which is building the Port Wayne & Northwestern road, the Indianapolis & Shelbyville line and the Central Tract line. His headquarters will be in Indianapolis, and he will begin the duties of his office on Oct. 15. The syndicate is a joint venture of members of the Tammany Society of New York City, and has in prospect the construction of several hundred miles of interurban lines, most of them in Indiana.

Mrs. Root Is Recovering.

Francis T. Root, of Connersville, said at the Denison Hotel last night that his mother, Mrs. P. H. Root, who was severely injured a few days ago at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Thompson, 1908 North New Jersey street, is considerably improved, and there is hope for her recovery. Mrs. Root fell down a flight of steps and sustained a bad fracture of her right thigh. The case is remarkable from the fact that the patient has attained the advanced age of eighty-five years.

Floyd A. Woods's Rig Stolen.

A horse and buggy belonging to Floyd A. Woods were stolen last night at 8 o'clock. Three men were seen in the vehicle about midnight, but beyond that fact the police have no clue to the thieves. The horse is a sorrel, fifteen and three-quarters hands high, with white stripe on forehead and both hind feet white. The animal was hitched to a light rubber-tire phaeton which has one shaft broken, the fracture being wrapped with tape.
